CHINA THANKS VANCOUVER FRIENDS

Chinese Voice Appreciation Of Relief Aid

Using the building of a "true basis for co-operation in the forming of a better nation and a finer civilization," Tim Louie, chairman of the Chinese War Relief Committee welcomed 150 guests to "an appreciation banquet" given by the committee in Hotel Vancouver Wednesday night.

"Warm friendship should exist between Canada and China," he said as he expressed the thanks of the Chinese community for the assistance given by Canadians in the relief drive.

"Russia has shown the world," he said, "that all races united can accomplish anything."

"Mutual adversity can forge the bonds of friendship which at present are glowing warm between China and the balance of the United Nations."

"We are on the threshold of a great era. Our age, the age of liberty and freedom, is coming to birth."
